

Anti-commercial Bribery Vertical Database

Anti-Commercial Bribery Vertical Database consists of News, Legislation, Case, Commentary and Q&A sections, which will provide users with panorama solutions in anti-commercial bribery practice by relying on cutting-edge retrieval technology and convenient information access.

Laws and Cases

Sorting out the laws, regulations, judgment documents and administrative punishments relating to anti-commercial bribery, which will improve the retrieval efficiency.

Q&A

Allowing users to ask questions they may encounter in their routine compliance work and obtain specialized guidance from experts in the industry.

Practice Guide for Compliance

Providing practical guidelines for anti-commercial bribery, introducing various types of commercial bribery, and providing analysis of typical cases, which will help enterprises operate in compliance with laws.

Annual Compliance Report

Providing the annual developments and trends forecast of legislation and law enforcement in the field of anti-commercial bribery, and putting forward suggestions on corporate compliance.

Internal Training Assistant

Most of the content comes from the presentations given at legal forums and seminars, which can be referred to by corporate counsels or compliance personnel in preparation of internal training materials.

Format Template for Anti-commercial Bribery

Providing templates with high-quality English translation to help users save their time in drafting documents.

News

Providing timely updates on the information relating to anti-commercial bribery to help users keep informed of trends in the industry.

Commentary

Inviting experts in the industry to analyze and comment on the hot or difficult issues in anti-commercial bribery, closely following industry trends, focusing on the fields prone to commercial bribery, and introducing the anti-corruption laws enacted in foreign countries.

Smart Chart

Covering the fields prone to commercial bribery and various means of commercial bribery, and providing analysis of typical cases in the field of anti-commercial bribery.