

Tax Law Vertical Database

Tax Law Vertical Database is a tool designed exclusively for legal practitioners. It provides both retrieval service and solutions, which helps legal practitioners quickly solve the tax law problems they may encounter in practice.

Tax Regulations

Helping users accurately locate laws and regulations

Collecting tax laws and regulations from a wide range of sources, and helping users solve the puzzles caused by the complex and frequently updated tax laws and regulations, by relying on smart retrieval method and accurate indicator of effectiveness.

Practice Guide

Presenting the tax law knowledge required by legal practitioners in a systematic manner

The practice guide is prepared by specialized law firms, in which the tax law knowledge is presented in a systematic manner and in a section-by-section form. They are in plain language, of practical use and easy to read.

Cases

Extracting applicable operating guidelines from tax-related disputes

Summing up the practical issues arising from tax-related disputes, supplemented with the analysis and suggestions given by experts, so as to provide applicable operating guidelines for solution of tax-related disputes.

Q&A

The presentation of Q&A under specific scenarios and the invitation of experts help users solve their practical issues

Commentary

Providing expert comments on tax law compliance in response to specific issues

Law Express

Helping users keep abreast of new tax laws and policies

Expressly presenting the new tax laws and policies published by tax authorities at various levels, which allows subscribers to keep well informed of the latest tax law updates without having to checking the websites of tax authorities.